Live Unscripted Comedy Kicks Off Sixth Season at The Tent Walking the dog Theater Returns to PS21 with Improv Café’

[CHATHAM, NY] - The multi-talented members of Walking the dog Theater’s OFF LEASH! Ensemble will perform at PS21 on two consecutive Saturdays this summer, June 11 and 18 beginning at 8:00 pm. Similar in format and style to the popular television show “Whose Line Is It Anyway?” the fast-paced Improv Café features skits, games, and parodies based on audience suggestions.

“The performances are not scripted and the comedians create dialog, setting, characters and plot on the spot. It’s an interactive show where the audience experiences the art of spontaneous imagination as actors think and act on their feet,” explains WTD Executive Artistic Director David Anderson. “The audience plays an integral role in how things unfold, as the performers ask them to contribute ideas that lead and motivate the players. Great suggestions make for inspiring sketches and no two shows are ever the same.”

Seating for this event is cabaret-style, similar to PS21’s Friday Night Swing Dances. Attendees are encouraged to bring any food or beverage that they might enjoy, as they can eat and drink while being entertained.

Improv Café is appropriate for ages 10 and up and will be held Saturday, June 11 and 18 at 8:00 pm. Admission is $20 for nonmembers and $15 for members. For info or to order tickets, call 518.392.6121 or visit ps21chatham.org. Tickets will also be available at the door.

PS21: Performance Spaces for the 21st Century is a not-for-profit organization located at 2980 Route 66 in Chatham, New York. PS21 is dedicated to the performing arts and to serving a diverse community with concerts, programs and residencies by professional artists and ensembles, youth and children’s programming and cultural education opportunities.
