WALKING THE DOG THEATER INTRODUCES IMPROV CAFE TO PS/21 Fast-Paced, Spontaneous Show To Help Kick Off 5th Season at The Tent

[CHATHAM, NY] - The multi-talented members of Walking the dog Theater’s OFF LEASH! Ensemble will perform at PS/21 on two consecutive Saturdays this summer, June 19 and 26 beginning at 8:00pm. Improv Café is a fast-paced, funny, interactive show where the audience gets to experience the art of spontaneous imagination as actors think on their feet and act from their guts.

“We begin with a slate of situations and characters and then ask the audience to contribute ideas that lead and motivate the players. Sometimes we laugh throughout the evening; at other times there are poignant moments,” said David Anderson, WTD’s Executive Artistic Director. “The evening becomes a ride that we all take together.” Improv Café is similar in format and style to the popular television show “Whose Line Is It Anyway?”.

The audience plays an integral role in how things unfold, often being invited to join the cast of professional actors and clowns in a game or be in on a secret. Great suggestions make for inspiring sketches and no two shows are ever the same.

Seating for Improv Café is cabaret-style, similar to PS/21’s Friday Night Swing Dances. The audience can eat and drink while being entertained, and attendees are encouraged to bring any food or beverage that they might enjoy, along with a dessert to share.

Improv Café is appropriate for ages 10 and up and will be held Saturday, June 19 and 26 at 8:00 pm. Admission is $20 for adults and $15 for PS/21 members. For information or to order tickets, please call 518.392.6121 or visit ps21chatham.org. Tickets will also be available at the door until the show sells out.

PS/21: Performance Spaces for the 21st Century is a not-for-profit organization located at 2980 Route 66 in Chatham, New York. PS/21 is dedicated to the performing arts and serving a diverse community with concerts, programs and residencies by artists and ensembles, youth and children’s programming and cultural education opportunities for all ages.
