“THOSE TWO GUYS” RETURN TO THE TENT AT PS/21
Laugh Out Loud Entertainment for the Whole Family

[CHATHAM, NY] - Those Two Guys, an entertaining duo of mirthful and talented slapstick entertainers, return for their fifth consecutive year to PS/21: Performance Spaces for the 21st Century. This family-friendly show, which incorporates juggling, unicycling, tumbling, and character acting, will be held Saturday, July 3 at PS/21’s SaddleSpan tent venue located on Route 66 in Chatham.

Columbia County residents Pat Ferri and Dave Cox will perform new skits as well as the classics with their unique Comedy for A New Depression. “This year’s show will involve an airplane and a boat. Yes, an airplane and boat under the tent!” said Ferri. “We’ll face our greatest challenge in “The Flight of the Fisherman.” And when Those Two Guys inherit a restaurant, they encounter hilarious troubles trying to run it.

Those Two Guys is guaranteed to provide a laugh out loud evening for the entire family. “It’s old vaudeville style comedy with a twenty-first century twist,” said Dave Cox. “Like silent film without the silent and without the film.”

Those Two Guys will perform Saturday, July 3 at 7:30 pm. Admission is $25 for adults, $20 for PS/21 members and $10 for children under 14. For information or to order tickets, please call 518.392.6121 or visit ps21chatham.org. Tickets will also be available at the door until the show sells out.

PS/21 is a not-for-profit organization located at 2980 Route 66 in Chatham, New York. PS/21 is dedicated to the performing arts and serving a diverse community with concerts, programs and residencies by professional artists and ensembles, youth and children’s programming and cultural education opportunities for all ages.
